The pride of Indian Science, Sir. C. V. Raman, discovered the Raman Effect on 28th February, 1928 who worked in the Indian Association for the Cultivation of Science, Kolkata and was awarded the Nobel Prize in 1930. Govt. of India declared in 1987 the 28th February as National Science Day.

Science works for the Benefit of Mankind. Scientific knowledge has led to remarkable innovations that have been of great benefit to the sustainability of the society. Most of the benefits of science are haphazardly distributed although Science does not work for ‘Rich’ or ‘Poor’; Science for all; Science for Self-reliance; Science travels from ‘Truth’ to ‘More Truth’ not from ‘False’ to ‘Truth’.

As a part of ‘Swadeshi Science Movement’ during Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav the theme of the National Science Day (NSD) 2022 is, “integrated approach in science and technology for a sustainable future”. The Indian Chemical Society, one of the oldest societies founded by Acharya P. C. Ray as the First President along with J. C. Ghosh, J. N. Mukherjee, S. S. Bhatnagar and others in 1924 is going to celebrate NSD-2022 on 28th February (Monday), 2022 by arranging competitions of Speech, Model and Poster on the Theme topic amongst School children, College/University students and researchers.

This program will be inaugurated by Prof. G. D. Yadav, President, Indian Chemical Society. The Keynote address will be delivered by Dr. T G K Murthy, Former Director, ISRO, Govt. of India on “An overview of India’s Space Journey”. Prof. D. C. Mukherjee will introduce the importance of Science Day. Other speakers are Dr. D. V. Prabhu, Founder General Secretary, Association of Chemistry Teachers and Prof. Ayan Datta, Indian Association for the Cultivation of Science. The students (Class V – PG), young researchers and other dignitaries will present their research on this platform through speech, models and posters.

Participants are requested to fill up the Registration Form (Google form) for participation. Last date of registration is 25th February 2022.

This programme will include following competitions
